Delivering customer loyalty

Microsoft CRM Customer Service

• Case management	Create, assign, and manage customer service requests from initial contact through resolution, as well as manage communications and other activities.
• Service requests	Automatically associate incoming support inquiries with the appropriate case.
• Queuing	Send cases to a waiting area—the queue—where they can be easily accessed by individuals and teams.
• Routing and workflow	Route service requests automatically to the appropriate representative for resolution, escalation, or reassignment.
• Searchable knowledge base	Resolve common support issues quickly by using a searchable knowledge base that contains relevant articles. Built-in review processes help ensure that published information is complete, correct, and properly tagged for search.
• Contract management	Create and maintain service contracts within Microsoft CRM to help ensure accurate billing for support incidents. Each time a support case is resolved, relevant contract information is updated automatically.
• E-mail management (includes auto-response e-mail)	Maintain accurate customer-related communications records with automated tracking of customer e-mail messages. Generate and send auto-response e-mail to customer requests.
• Product catalog	Work with a full-featured product catalog that includes support for complex pricing levels, units of measure, discounts, and pricing options.
• Reports	Use comprehensive reporting tools to help identify common support issues, evaluate customer needs, track service processes, and measure service performance.
• Integration with Microsoft Business Solutions	Microsoft CRM integrates easily with Microsoft Business Solutions for Financial Management. Key data mapping includes accounts, contacts, product catalog, orders, and price lists.

Microsoft CRM is designed to meet budget and support needs for your business. Delivery and implementation through a Microsoft partner include hands-on assistance with setup and maintenance processes, along with comprehensive training and support resources.
